3) At present, as per Govt orders, the publication charges are being paid into the Treasury in advance. This system has been working very satisfactorily & none has complained against it. But if the suggestion of the President, Ol Bd Bangalore, is given effect to, I am afraid there will be heavy amounts outstanding under this head. For example, the cost of stationery supplied to the several Ol Bd Presidents is not ~~supplied~~ paid for 4 & 5 years, even though several reminders are sent from this office and also from the Comptr with the result that the auditors find fault with the Dept for allowing such accounts remaining unadjusted for several years. On the other hand, if the Presidents are deposit Rs 100/- or so, to be re-coupled from time to time, by adjustments of bills for publication charges, the proceedings of the meetings may be printed in anticipation of payment

10) If necessary steps are taken to ensure settlement of a/c - whether by issue of cheques, credit into Treasury or book transfer - within the quarter to which the work relates. The Supdt C.P. may be authorised to Execute orders without payment in advance. The office notes bear out the representation of the Supdt & I do not know what cause the Dist Bds (& the in particular) have to complain. The Supdt is quite right I think in asking for prompt settlement of his a/c. If the Dist Bds are to pay touchy in this matter I do not see any reason why they should not be equally prompt in the settlement of accounts. The

12) I do not think it would be quite appropriate to insist on payments by Dist. Bds, in advance, for publication of matter in the Govt Gazette. There is no reason why these Boards should not settle the claims within one month from the date of receipt of Bills from the Supdt. An order to this effect may be issued & if, even then, arrears are allowed to accumulate, the question of insisting on payments in advance may be considered

To

Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that in connection with the publication in the Mysore Gazette of notices, proceedings of meetings etc.,sent by the District Board, there has been a good deal of -- avoidable delay owing to the Compiler insisting on previous payment which could not be done again without intimating the cost proposed to be levied. Although the payment of such charges in the case of a District Board under the final control of Government is a question of mere book-adjustment, the publication of matter is held up till the money is actually credited into the Treasury and a Treasury receipt is received in the office of the Compiler. This procedure is hardly consistent with despatch of work or the dignity of the Board and I beg therefore that you will be so good as to instruct the Compiler to have all matters sent for publication duly published in the next issue, a bill of cost being sent in due course for payment.

I have the honor to be,
